FOSTERS OF CHARLESTOWN, MASS.

WILLIAM FOSTER, the founder of this family, was admitted to the Church of Charlestown, 15 (6) 1652. Savage thinks he was of Boston, 1644, with wife Susanna, but proof of this is wanting. His English origin is also unknown, but he may have been the passenger of his name in the Hercules from Southampton, in 1634, and he may have been son of Richard Foster, of Romsey in Hampshire, baptized there 22 January, 1615. William Foster, of Charlestown, was aged about 80 at his death, while this identification would make him 83, which is hardly inconsistent, and it may be noticed that his grandson Richard is called 82 on his tombstone, when he was really but little over 80. This, however, is mere conjecture. We know that William Foster had for wife Anne, daughter of William Brackenbury, of Charlestown and Malden, and that she was admitted to the Church, 23 (7) 1652. He was a sea captain, and in 1669 master of the Dolphin. Mather in his Magualia, III. 183, has this mention of him. It is found in the Life of the Rev. John Eliot.

"There was a Godly Gentleman of Charlstown, one Mr. Foster, who with his Son, was taken captive by Turkish Enemies. Much Prayer was employed, both privately and publickly, by the good People here, for the Redemption of that Gentleman; but we were at last informed, that the Bloody Prince, in whose Dominions he was now a Slave, was resolved that in his Life-time no Prisoner should be relased; and so the Distressed Friends of this Prisoner now concluded, Our Hope is lost! Well, upon this, Mr. Eliot, in some of his next Prayers, before a very solemn Congregation, very broadly beg'd, Heavently Father, work for the Redemption of thy poor Serrant Foster; and if the Prince which detains him will not, as they say, dismiss him as long himself lives, Lord, we pray thee to kill that cruel Prince; kill him, and glorify thy self upon him. And now behold the answer: The poor Captiv'd Gentleman quickly returns to us that had been mourning for him as a lost Man, and brings us News, that the Prince which had hitherto held him, was come to an Untimely Death, by which means he was now set at Liberty."

The date of this captivity is fixed by John Hull, who wrote in his diary 1671, "8ber 21. We received intelligence that William Foster, master of a small ship, was taken by the Turks as he was going to Bilboa with fish. (He was redeemed, and came home 9ber, 1673.)" His good social position is shown by the fact that his Isaac stood first in rank in a class of eleven at Harvard College. He died at Charlestown, 8 May, 1698, and his widow, 22 Sept., 1714, in her 86th year.—In his will he mentioned his "kinswoman

8. ISAAC⁴ (Isaac,³ Richard,² William¹), was born at Charlestown, 28 Aug., 1740; graduated at Harvard University in 1758. He then began the study of medicine under Dr. Lloyd, of Boston, and completed his studies in England. In his profession he achieved considerable reputation, had a large practice, and numbered among his pupils, Doctors Bartlett, Welch and Eustis. He was a staunch patriot, and a prominent man in the town meetings of the day, his name appearing upon several committees. He was elected a delegate to the convention in the county of Middlesex in Aug., 1774, and a member of the first Provincial Congress of Massachusetts in October of the same year. In 1775 he was appointed a surgeon, was for some months at the head of the Military Medical Department, while General Ward held command in Cambridge. After the battle of Concord he gave up a large private practice to attend to the wounded. He was appointed by the committee of safety, to attend the men wounded at the battle of Bunker's Hill. Soon after was appointed surgeon of the State Hospital. General Washington, on the discovery of the treachery of Dr. Church, appointed him in October, Director General pro tem. of the American Hospital Department. In 1777 the office of Deputy Director General of Hospitals was established, and he was chosen by Congress to this office, having charge of the eastern department. This office was abolished in 1780, and of course Dr. Foster was left out of the service. His health had suffered so much by fatigue and exposures, that he lived but a short time longer.

In the Atlantic Monthly for May, 1859, under the title of "A Bundle of old Letters," there is given a short sketch of his life and public services, together with over a dozen letters written by him, from various places, 1776-79, principally to his wife, in which reference is made to the state of affairs, and many incidents of the day are recorded.

He lived on the northwest corner of Main and Henley streets.

He married, 4 July, 1765, Martha, daughter of Thaddens Mason, of Cambridge. She died 21 Sept., 1770, aged 27, and he married again 8 Sept., 1771, Mary, daughter of Richard Russell, of Charlestown. He died 27 Feb., 1782, probably in Boston. His will is dated 1 Aug., 1780, and proved 19 April, 1782. Suffolk Probate Records.

His widow married, 8 June, 1783, John Hurd, of Boston, as his second wife, and died 14 January, 1786, aged 37. His children were:—
